CAREER CONNECTED LEARNING

Hello! We're so glad you are here. Planning for your future can seem overwhelming, especially when you are in Middle School. If you are feeling unprepared, know that you are not alone. Help is available.

The Career Connected Learning Resource Hub provides practical advice so that you can find the career and educational path that's right for you.

Let's go do something awesome!

TAKE A LOOK!

CAREER CONNECTED LEARNING GUIDE

Middle School is a great time to explore your interests and appreciate your unique strengths.

Click on the questions below to learn more about yourself and what careers feel like a good fit for you.

- 1 What are my unique strengths?
  - 2 What careers match my interests?
  - 3 What skills do I need to pursue my career goals?
  - 4 What jobs pay well in Oregon?
  - 5 How can I contribute to a better world?

Do you have more questions? Luckily, there is help. Ask your parents and teachers how to explore careers in your community and learn about career fairs, workplace tours, classroom simulations and other Career Connected Learning (CCL) activities.
